

TELEMOS CAPITAL SECURES FINANCING FOR MEDEUROPA, A LEADING EUROPEAN CANCER CARE GROUP

21.01.2020 – Telemos Capital (“Telemos”) announces that its portfolio company MedEuropa, a leading European cancer care group, has successfully secured debt financing from Ardian. The senior facilities have been partially utilised as acquisition financing of MedEuropa’s first French acquisition and will continue to be used to support the company’s exciting buy-and-build strategy.

The financing is reflective of the strength of MedEuropa’s proposition and ability to execute on the organic and inorganic growth opportunities within the European cancer care market, with three radiotherapy centres already acquired since establishment.

Nils Hagerstål and Dipesh Mahtani of Telemos said: “We are delighted to have secured debt financing for MedEuropa, which reinforces the strength of the strategy and execution capabilities of the management team. Ardian have shown themselves to be ideal partners to flexibly support MedEuropa as it pursues its ambitious buy-and-build strategy.”

Ralph Hefti, MedEuropa’s CEO, commented: “Ardian’s ability to offer a flexible solution to the Group’s requirements was key to this partnership. Ardian has been extremely responsive and creative and has set up financing that is very well suited to the way MedEuropa intends to move forward.”

Guillaume Chinardet, Head of Ardian Private Debt France, said: “We look forward to the long term cooperation with the MedEuropa management team and Telemos Capital, valuable partners with strong expertise in the European healthcare services market. We are convinced that MedEuropa will achieve further growth via strategic acquisitions in the fragmented European radiotherapy market.”
